

STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

INTRODUCTION

This document stipulates the terms and conditions for a long-term contract agreement between Wicotel (the service provider) and a subscriber (ie customer). The reason for a long-term agreement is to accommodate the subscriber to pay off fees over a period of time, which would have been regarded as once off fees otherwise

APPLICABLE DOCUMENTATION

This document does not replace or supersede any of the other Wicotel policies or agreements. It should be read in conjunction with our Terms of Service document as well as the Fair Usage Policy

INDEMNIFICATION

You (the subscriber) agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Wicotel, its affiliates and its and their respective owners, investors, contractors, officers, directors, members, managers, partners, shareholders, licensors, suppliers, customers, employees, agents, third-party advertisers, technology providers and service providers from and against any loss, damage, cost, or liability (including, reasonable attorneys' fees) resulting from or relating in any way to any claim, demand, action or proceeding that arises out of this Agreement or the service, including but not limited to in relation to your use, non-use or misuse of, or connection to any service as provided by Wicotel.

AGREEMENT PERIOD

We (Wicotel) will continue to supply you with, and you must pay the charges for, the internet services until the full 24 months of this agreement ends.

If this agreement ends before the end of the minimum period (whether by you or us), you must still pay all the full subscription charges until the end of the minimum period (which is 24 months). This does not apply if we end this agreement because we are permanently unable to provide the services to you.

We may also charge you our reasonable administration costs as a result of you paying your bill late or failing to pay it. We may charge you an administration fee if we have to transfer your account to a debt collection agency because you do not pay your airtime payments. You will be held liable for any legal charges as a result of non-payment

OWNERSHIP AND INSURANCE

- The equipment is sold to the subscriber on a rent-to-own agreement.
- Until such time that the contract has been fully paid, you may not sell, hire to someone else, swap or throw away the equipment.
- The equipment is the full responsibility of the subscriber. The subscriber must ensure that all equipment is fully and comprehensively insured. Any loss or damage incurred on the equipment will be for the subscribers account.
